Climate Justice Ambassadors:
We Make Ourselves Heard

Over 100,273 children and youth have already been trained at 1,866 academies in 76 countries, where we teach each other about the climate crisis. As Climate Justice Ambassadors we fight for our future by planting trees, giving speeches, protesting, and much more.

Why the world needs a trillion more trees!

The world currently has three trillion trees and has space for a trillion more. Trees are one of the most powerful tools that buy us time in the fight against the climate crisis. Only by restoring these forests, we will be able to keep temperature rise below 1.5°C.
